

YEAR 5
WORKING AT THE EXPECTED
STANDARD

Time conjunctions used to structure the paragraphs and make it more interesting.

One snowy evening, I came across a tiny cottage in a winter wonderland. Under a sunset that was as bright as a thousand fireflies, and above a soft white blanket of snow, which was sparkling and reflecting in the sunset. Once I felt the smoothing snow The snow was that deep I started to drown. I couhgt a howling sound heading from the icy mountains and there were a pack of angry wolves, but they didn't do any harm but just stood glaring at me.

Use of commas to create multi clause sentences.

When I woke up I was in the most tiny cottage in a warm fluffy bed. I looked out to see what had happened and I was in the wonderland that I cam across yesterday. When I went outside to play I could hear the cooling of the mountains and the howling of the wind. I could hear the trees swaying side to side and I could hear the thump of the snow crashing onto the ground from the dancing trees.

Evidence of beginning sentence clauses with 'With'

Use of modal verbs to explain possibility.

Time conjunctions used to structure the paragraphs and make it more interesting.

I could touch the slippery icycles and the gleaming snow. I made a snowman and played a snow ball fight with it.

YEAR 5
WORKING AT THE EXPECTED
STANDARD

After that I felt the cold breeze rushing towards my face and with a delicate touch on the trees all the snow came crashing down onto me and I was covered with snow trapped on the floor not just even could move my leg. Once I got out I made snow angels and I could feel the delicate snow in my boots, it was cold but the softness of it made if feel warm.

Consistent use of verb tenses throughout piece.

Evidence of beginning sentence clauses with 'With'

When I went inside there was a feast set out for me ~~and~~ asthoug if it was like magic. I sat down licking my lips just waiting for my hand to touch that chocolate cake with extra cream and icing. I grabbed the cakes and I was filled with sugar it was magnificent just to delicious. I could taste the burning of the marshmallows melting in my mouth.

Appropriately chosen vocabulary to enhance the overall piece.

I felt so excited today and had an amazing time. So then I went to sleep and I woke up and it ended that it was a dream!

TRANSCRIPTION

Spelling is mostly accurate with occasional errors - as though, couhgt

HANDWRITING

Maintains legibility and fluency with letters appropriately joined.

PUNCTUATION

Sentence punctuation is mostly accurate with a small number of sentences not demarcated by full stops.

Whilst there is some evidence of commas to mark clause, use of them is inconsistent.