

Stage 6 secure (working at the expected standard)

Overall, the text is well structured, has a sense of purpose, adopts an appropriate formal tone, and uses good examples to highlight points. (C)

Dear Mr/Mrs, Sir/Madame Formal.

I am writing <sup>in</sup> (to) response to your chance of a lifetime advertisement and committing to be a hard-working newest member of your inspirational space team.

Excellent opening

To begin with, I am an ideal scientist in-the-making, with an advantage of establishing a multi-lingual talent. I thoroughly agree ~~(that)~~ being in space ~~(doing)~~ completing missions is a life-threatening job. However, I am very determined to become a part of the ISS! (who isn't enchanted by the majestic wonders of outer-space?)

I have a full experience of leadership and being part of a team as I am an out-door resident. Following the saying 'there is no 'I' in team', I shall take full responsibility in all mishaps and will fix them as I am a quick thinker and a skilled problem solver. <sup>adverb</sup> Frequently, <sup>have</sup> been awarded a prize on a mechanical project for first place!

Good use of adverbs and expanded noun phrases to add detail and precision. (C)

I extensively train each day and am fit for any problem throughout (dilemma's) missions. I agree that space walks are no small step for man and behind every launch there is an extraordinary team. If you make me a part of your team it would be an entire honour and I would make space walks a giant leap for man!

Good use of prepositional phrases to add detail and qualification. (C)

<sup>relevant detail</sup> My father has a degree in engineering, science and mathematics and has fully trained me (and it is in my blood) for any dilemma the ISS would have. It would mean the world to me if you would choose me for this thrilling opportunity!

Correct spellings of Year 5/6 exception words: opportunity, curiosity, determined, frequently, excellent (T)

With a curiosity and dedication to space, which I fully respect, I would be a great advantage to help in any situation. Seeing that I would dedicate my life to space, I truly hope you would choose
